United Way of Southern Nevada

ANNUAL REPORT 2019

#UNITED4VEGAS

Dear friends,

We are very proud of the work being done and are deeply grateful for the contributions of so many individuals, corporations, foundations and organizations that partner with United Way of Southern Nevada. With the support of our entire community, we are moving the needle and creating incredible outcomes for generations to come.

This year, we celebrated the first year of impact with our seven partners receiving funding through our three-year $1,000,000 investment. Together with these partners, we have helped thousands of children, families and individuals and made a difference right here in Southern Nevada. With the support you have provided this year, we have prepared children with a high-quality early education, helped students graduate high school, supported individuals earning a degree or certification and provided support for the entire family.

Throughout 2019 HEROES, you will read the stories of people like Sheri, Christian, Zulma, Sharon and Jayden whose lives were changed because of UWSN and our partners. These individuals and so many others have found the path to success because of the generous support of the donors recognized in these pages. Thanks to their financial support, trust and belief in our mission, we have been able to drive tangible impact to not just one cause, but to the entire community.

This important work only happens when people like our donors, volunteers and supporters feel compelled to make a positive change in our community. On behalf of the UWSN board of directors and our staff, we wholeheartedly express our gratitude for all that you do to make a real difference. Whether you join our thousands of community volunteers, give through your workplace campaign, become an individual donor or participate in our community work, you are a part of the change that we are creating in the community.

The most vulnerable residents of our community are counting on us. You have made a difference right here in Southern Nevada, and we are so grateful for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "Thomas Kovach, Jr." with a stylized flourish at the end.

Thomas Kovach, Jr.
Board Chair
United Way of Southern Nevada

LIFE-CHANGING OUTCOMES FOR 4,462 INDIVIDUALS

$8.5 Million In Early Childhood Education Scholarships

United Way of Southern Nevada has selected 19 early education centers with nearly 40 classrooms to receive funding for free and reduced early childhood education tuition scholarships for three- and four-year-old children in need. A total amount of $8.5 million in funding provides child care centers with resources aiding in early childhood education. Nevada has nearly the lowest rates of preschool enrollment in the United States. Only 33.7% of three- and four-year-olds in Clark County are enrolled in a full-day pre-kindergarten program. The Nevada Department of Education and UWSN are bridging the education gap of early childhood education by offering scholarships and investment funds to child care centers.

Scholarships have been issued through qualified centers to families in need based on child care center recommendations and referrals. All centers participate in the Quality Rating and Improvement System (QRIS) created by the Nevada Department of Education. For more information, please visit uwsn.org/earlyeducation.

$1 Million Emergency Food And Shelter Program Funding

United Way of Southern Nevada is proud to announce the thirteen nonprofits receiving federal funds through the Emergency Food and Shelter Program (EFSP). Organizations received funding to help families in need through food, housing and utility assistance. Families in Clark County can benefit from and gain access to free services to help alleviate the stress of expenses while experiencing crisis situations.

Individuals can access help from the following 13 organizations in the areas listed below:

- Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada
- East Valley Family Services
- Emergency Aid of Boulder City, Inc.
- Family Promise of Las Vegas
- HELP of Southern Nevada
- HopeLink of Southern Nevada
- Jewish Family Service Agency
- Lutheran Social Services of Nevada
- Nevada Partnership for Homeless Youth
- SafeNest: Temporary Assistance for Domestic Crisis, Inc.
- The Salvation Army
- United Labor Agency of Nevada
- U.S. Vets Las Vegas

A board made up of local government, nonprofit organizations and United Way of Southern Nevada determined how the funds awarded to Clark County were distributed among the emergency food and shelter programs run by local service agencies in the area. The Local Board is responsible for recommending agencies to receive these funds and any additional funds made available under this phase of the program.

WOMEN UNITED SUIT DRIVE

HELPING WOMEN LIKE SHERI SUCCEED

For women like Sheri, a new outfit can mean a new life. In 2017, Sheri was a single, unemployed mother on welfare with a 5-year-old son who had been diagnosed with a learning disability. She had a minimum wage housekeeping job and found herself grappling daily to juggle work hours and the responsibility of picking up her son from kindergarten.

After a rough day at work, Sheri went to pick up her son Ricky from school and noticed a bright smile on his face. He pointed out his brand-new shoes, compliments of a local nonprofit organization. Sheri immediately wrote a letter expressing her gratitude. That letter was seen by the executive director of Dress for Success of Southern Nevada, and she offered to bring a smile to Sheri's face by inviting her to the Dress for Success boutique for a suiting. This was a defining moment for Sheri. After her suiting experience, she was determined to do better for herself and her son.

With the support of volunteers and donors, Women United is helping create success stories like Sheri's through the Women United Suit Drive. Each year on the first Friday of November, the Suit Drive collects thousands of professional items for women like Sheri receiving training and resources through agencies that help women find jobs and start on the path to a career.

The 12th annual Suit Drive on Friday, November 1, 2019 collected an incredible 8,996 items and assembled 1,676 women's professional outfits. Donations benefited women who are participating in return to work programs and need professional clothing to wear to interviews and future job opportunities. These programs include Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada, Dress for Success of Southern Nevada, Goodwill Career Connections of Southern Nevada, HELP of Southern Nevada, S.A.F.E. House, SafeNest, and The Shade Tree.

After receiving her outfit, Sheri's life changed. She began to participate in Job Readiness Programs at Dress for Success and had the opportunity to attend the MGM Women's Leadership Conference. These experiences helped to inspire Sheri and sharpen her skills. Today, Sheri has a full-time career as Client Coordinator at the Women's Resource Medical Center of Southern Nevada.

CREATING A STRONG FOUNDATION FOR CHILDREN

For young children about to attend preschool for the first time, the thought of going to school is scary, but exciting. For students who may need more help or different styles of teaching, school is no longer exciting: it's just scary. As a four-year-old receiving a free early education scholarship, Christian had to be put on an individual education plan due to a developmental delay. Through the UWSN Nevada Ready! program, teachers in Christian's classroom receive training on how to evaluate and address delays in their students and with the help of these teachers, Christian now has the skills he needs to continue on to kindergarten and school is fun again!

TOGETHER, WE ARE IMPROVING LIVES FROM CRADLE TO CAREER.

HELPING PARENTS BECOME THEIR CHILD'S FIRST TEACHER

When Zulma moved her family to Las Vegas for a new work opportunity, they lost the support system they had developed with the Early Intervention and Early Head Start program in California. Zulma worried that her young daughter Sharon wouldn't be ready to start preschool and would fall behind in kindergarten and beyond. After learning about a program provided by one of UWSN's funded partners, Sunrise Children's Foundation, she knew instantly that this was the program she needed.

Each week, Zulma meets with a home visitor, another parent trained by Sunrise Children's Foundation to implement curriculum and activities that help Sharon learn and grow so she can be prepared for future success. They role play activities, discuss new programs and resources that can help the family, and enjoy trading off the "mother" and "child" roles so they can develop responses to questions and challenges their child might have. "Since she is a program mom too, she understands my challenges when it comes to having curriculum packets done on time and she shares tips and ideas to modify the activities to fit Sharon's needs," Zulma shares.

Sharon loves doing her homework and spending time with her mom. She knows how to read the books from her weekly packets, write her name, and make crafts with the materials provided by the program, and she enjoys drawing. "She has fallen in love with reading at home!" says Zulma. "We always read every evening and before bedtime, it's our favorite routine of the day."

Now, Sharon is four and a half years old and her learning abilities are more developed every single week. Sharon shows off new skills every day, like writing her name without assistance, reciting her numbers from one to ten, and helping with cooking and preparing meals for the day.

"This program has helped me so much as a mom," says Zulma. "With everything that the program has given us, I believe Sharon is more likely to be very successful when she starts kindergarten. I am very proud to be participating in a program that focuses on helping families in need in the community, they have given me so much and I am very grateful."

STUDENT SUCCESS

STRONGER FOUNDATIONS IN SOUTHERN NEVADA

Our goal is to help students graduate by providing resources and support throughout middle and high school.

Over the last two years, donations from people like you helped United Way grant more than $326,000 to support over 7,380 students with tutoring, after-school programs, and healthy skills and behaviors.

DID YOU KNOW?

More than 1.2 million high school students drop out every year across the United States.

High school graduates have higher average incomes and are significantly less likely to be incarcerated than non-grads.

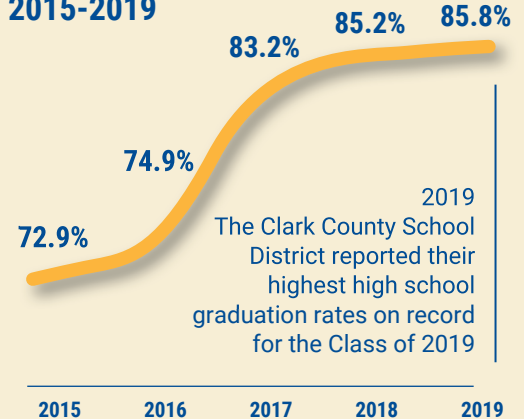

UWSN focuses efforts in Clark County high schools and neighborhoods where graduation rates are below average.

Programs funded by UWSN provide tutoring, homework assistance, healthy behaviors, and health care services.

High School Graduation Rates (CCSD) 2015-2019

Graduation rates continue to rise

Since 2015, United Way of Southern Nevada has supported thousands of middle and high school students.

Over the same period, high school graduation rates increased from 72.9% to 85.8%, representing an increase of more than 5,000 additional high school graduates each year.

"United Way has played such an important role in helping Nevada kids and families over the past 60 years. Be it supporting early education efforts for low-income students or expanding training programs for those struggling to find stable, good-paying jobs, United Way has changed the lives of tens of thousands of Nevadans for the better. United Way is truly the nexus of all giving and charitable work within Nevada – and I couldn't be more proud of their efforts."

MOVING STUDENTS FORWARD

Every day after school, sixth grader Jayden visits his local library. Is Jayden a bookworm, roaming the stacks for the latest books? No, Jayden is a diligent student working with Las Vegas – Clark County Library District Foundation tutors to ensure his academic success. Each of these tutors is a Clark County School District teacher, taking time from their busy schedules to come help their students succeed. Jayden has an excellent attitude and works diligently with the tutors to learn to solve his math problems and complete his homework assignments. His math scores have soared on his online math assignments. Jayden's teacher was so impressed with his progress, she advanced him to the next grade level in his math classes!

POST-SECONDARY ATTAINMENT

STRONGER CAREERS IN SOUTHERN NEVADA

Students are finding new ways to succeed through higher education and break the cycle of poverty.

Over the last two years, donations from people like you have helped UWSN grant more than $140,000 to support 519 students with leadership development, mentoring, college tours, financial aid applications, and college scholarships.

DID YOU KNOW?

A higher-educated population has higher earnings, more household income, higher rates of homeownership, and better health.

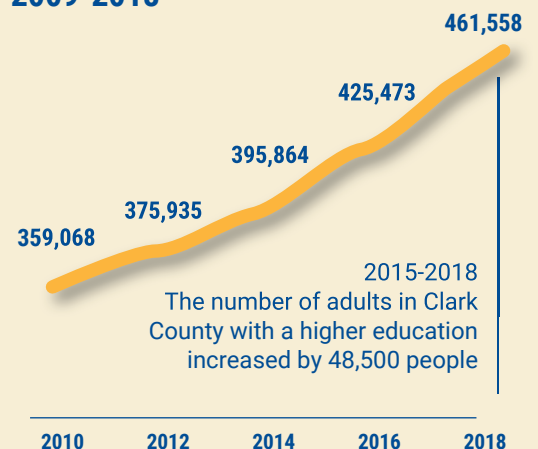

UWSN focuses efforts on leadership development, mentorship programs, and assistance applying for financial aid.

Last year, more than 500 students participated in leadership programs and 185 students received college scholarship funding through UWSN's support.

GROWING OUR WORKFORCE FOR A STRONGER ECONOMY

Each year, our work helps hundreds of college and career-focused students prepare for a healthier, more educated, and prosperous future.

JASMIN AND MILENA'S STORIES

PATHS TO SUCCESS THROUGH COLLEGE EDUCATION

At University of Nevada, Las Vegas, over 25,000 students are on campus every day preparing for their futures. Jasmin and Milena Avagyan, sisters and recipients of the Women United Emerging Leadership Award for Women scholarship, are among them as they take the first steps to prepare for careers that will create a better community.

Jasmin, a junior, and Milena, a freshman, are already planning how they can each make their mark and create a stronger community after college. Milena is excited to start her business and management classes so she can complete a project management certification in the future. "This is something that will never get boring for me," Milena says. "There will always be room for improvement and a daily challenge!" After graduating from UNLV, she wants to earn her MBA so she can plan and complete projects that are friendly to the environment and attract a wider audience to environmental issues.

Jasmin's major in biology is preparing her for four years of dental school and extensive training after college. Her ultimate goal is to open a nonprofit organization to offer dental care for those who can't afford it. "I believe everyone has the right to feel confident every time they smile, no matter their income," she says. She knows that by earning her degree, she can use her knowledge to help others and improve healthcare in Southern Nevada.

Growing up in Las Vegas has shown them both the importance of giving back to the community and helping to make it a better place for future generations. After seeing how a committed group of people like Women United can change lives, they've decided to follow their example. "The women of this organization have shown me tremendous leadership skills," Jasmin shares. "I admire the bond between these women and how they showcase their strength in the community."

Milena credits Women United for her ability to pursue her dreams. "These women each have an influential and inspirational mark on me and my future actions," says Milena. "Not only do I get to share the opportunity with my sister Jasmin, but I also get to be a witness of multiple women making changes on a daily basis to improve our community. I will always be grateful for each member for seeing potential in me."

HELPING JOB SEEKERS GET BACK TO WORK

Aniva was a 61-year-old single woman, residing at the Las Vegas Rescue Mission and struggling to find work. She had worked as a nurse in a family clinic for eight years before taking on a research associate position in 2013. However, she was let go after the workload of the new position left her struggling to adapt. After finding it difficult to find a new job, she fell into a deep depression and was evicted from her home. She turned to the Rescue Mission for housing support and they referred her to Foundation for an Independent Tomorrow (FIT). Aniva enrolled in FIT's Job Readiness Class, which helped her brush up on her resume writing and interviewing skills. With the support of her case manager, she grew more confident in her abilities and it wasn't long before she was hired by a local drug rehabilitation facility. In addition to finding a job through this program, she was also provided items needed to begin working again as well as assistance with transportation. Aniva is now working full time making $20 an hour with benefits. Her confidence has returned, and she is now in the process of moving into her own apartment and starting a new life.

BUILDING STABLE HOMES FOR FAMILIES IN NEED

United Way of Southern Nevada and the SIEMER Institute awarded $190,000 in funding to Family Promise of Las Vegas to create lasting change for families in need in Southern Nevada. Through their "Promises to Keep Housing and Family Stability Program," Family Promise aims to break the cycle of poverty by helping families develop goals around education, financial management and personal development. By connecting these families to resources, experiences, and guidance, the program will allow the family to realize a stronger future.

HELPING STUDENTS REACH A BRIGHT FUTURE

During his senior year of high school, Dariante went through a period of hardship as he was left to live alone and fend for himself without a family. However, through his strong determination and hard work he was able to graduate from high school and was admitted to UNLV. Once he began his college journey, Dariante sought the assistance of the Fulfillment Fund Las Vegas to help him navigate the complex system of post-secondary education. They cleared barriers that could have prevented Dariante's success, including advocating for Dariante at UNLV to secure summer housing, a meal plan, and additional financial aid. Based on his perseverance and dedication, Dariante was awarded the FFLV scholarship funded by United Way which will enable him to continue to receive support through the post-secondary program. The United Way and the Fulfillment Fund Las Vegas helped Dariante tremendously, not only helping him be successful during his first semester of college, but setting him on a path towards a bright future.

WORKFORCE SUPPORTS

STRONGER CAREERS IN SOUTHERN NEVADA

Our goal is to increase the proportion of families with full-time employment and the skills needed to meet the demands of the present and future economy.

Over the last two years, donations from people like you helped United Way grant over $355,000 to support more than 10,600 workers with job readiness training, mobile health services, internships, and career planning programs.

DID YOU KNOW?

Low-income families are at risk of falling into poverty, which can disrupt household life and reduce educational outcomes.

Last year through UWSN's support, nearly 500 people completed a job readiness course.

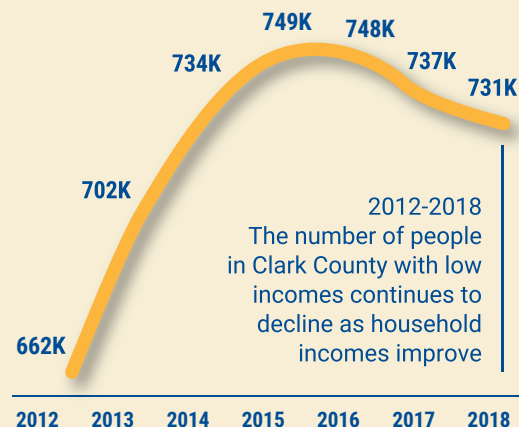

Four out of five people participating in a UWSN-supported career development program earned an industry-recognized credential.

Over 2,000 working families received child care assistance or health services, and more than 4,300 job seekers found employment through UWSN's support.

STRONGER FAMILIES, STRONGER COMMUNITIES

We build more prosperous communities as more working individuals and families have access to job training, career planning, and healthcare services.

UWSN helps hundreds of families get back to work and continue working with accessible, affordable, and compassionate programs.

CREATING CHANGE THROUGH CORPORATE AND COMMUNITY GIFTS

We applaud these companies that made a corporate gift to United Way of Southern Nevada. It's through the support of these organizations that United Way can build the capacity to create change in our community. Companies that make a corporate gift show their support in a variety of ways, whether it is by matching employee donations, holding special workplace events, sponsoring United Way events, or making a donation at the corporate level.

UNITED WAY DAY AT THE LEGISLATURE ADVOCATING FOR THE SUCCESS OF NEVADA FAMILIES

In April, United Way of Southern Nevada took a trip to Carson City to host United Way of Southern Nevada Day at the Legislature. During the special day, UWSN's leadership and board members celebrated our community's accomplishments and reiterated our commitment to continue collaborating with community leaders, stakeholders and legislators to advocate for our Southern Nevada community. UWSN received a warm welcome from the many advocates and public servants with whom we met. During our meetings with Governor Sisolak and legislative leadership, we had open and heart-felt conversations where we eagerly shared our plans for the future of our United Way and the pivotal role we play in supporting Nevada's underserved populations from cradle to career. Our team advocated for initiatives that will help advance our state, in the areas of early education, revision of the school funding formula, student success, college and career training and workforce supports. We believe in the power of advocacy and are grateful for the accomplishments of advocates and elected officials during the 2019 legislative session. We look forward to continuing the legislative work to better serve our Nevada families.

NV ENERGY: POWERING GOOD HELPING 2,337 WITH THEIR UTILITY BILLS

For vulnerable individuals on a tight budget in our community, high summer temperatures can present a true hardship. Often, people are forced to make tragic choices: life-saving air conditioning in the hot months, or enough food to put on the table? When Charlie Dipinto, 68 years old, tells his story, his concerns may be familiar to many other seniors and vulnerable adults. Matter-of-factly, Dipinto shares, "I live on a thousand dollars a month. Before I was hurt, it was a whole lot better than that, but c'est la vie." He adds, "I was very close to having my utilities shut off. I'm not used to that. I always paid my bills on time... Things changed." Fortunately for Dipinto, he's a recipient of United Way of Southern Nevada and NV Energy's Project REACH. Through Project REACH – Relief through Energy Assistance to Prevent Customer Hardships – vulnerable adults 62 years and older, medically fragile individuals, and Reserve and National Guard members who meet income guidelines can access energy assistance through eleven different organizations. Dipinto explains, "the biggest thing they do is they provide funds, which they have done for me for a couple years, to pay a power bill, either gas or electric." He adds, "it's been a serious helping hand for me." Project REACH was made possible past year through a generous donation of $500,000 from the NV Energy Foundation. The half-million dollars in funds came specifically from NV Energy shareholders and not from the utility company's customers. This past year, UWSN was honored to help 2,337 vulnerable adults with their utility bills through Project REACH and distributed a total of $589,615.40 to qualifying individuals. Dipinto has a simple and powerful message of gratitude. "I thank you for that," he says.

DAY OF CARING

UNITING FOR VEGAS' NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS AND SCHOOLS

During a powerful fourth annual Day of Caring on October 4, 2019, 1,106 volunteers completed 52 projects at 35 organizations and schools throughout the Las Vegas valley.

Bringing the community together to build hope and healing, this community-wide act of kindness wrapped up 1 October Remembrance Week. By uniting together, volunteers helped our community move forward and build resiliency at nonprofits, community organizations and schools.

Thanks to the generous support of Day of Caring sponsors including KTNV Channel 13 Action News, Las Vegas Review-Journal, Caesars Entertainment, Chase Bank, Nevada Volunteers, and Wells Fargo, volunteers completed projects that otherwise might not have been finished – or even started – without their support. From working with students, planting gardens and making kits to painting murals and cleaning up parks, volunteers were able to see firsthand how their time and effort makes a difference for Southern Nevada.

Volunteers were recognized for their contribution to the community at a breakfast Kickoff Celebration where they received LIVE UNITED t-shirts and UWSN tote bags.
