2025 Project REACH Senior Expos, powered by NV Energy

Through your support, UWSN provided critical financial relief for local Southern Nevada seniors. This program helps adults 62 and older who are experiencing financial challenges stay safe and connected at home.

- > 1,500+ senior households received past-due utility bill support
- > $360,000+ in assistance distributed across Southern Nevada
- > Seniors aged 62+ gained access to vital community resources

What Seniors Are Saying:

“Everybody was so courteous, polite, and understanding. It was a blessing.”

“You are all heroes to me”

“After losing my husband, the Expo lifted a huge burden and made me feel supported and cared for”

Eligible seniors can still apply for up to $300 in utility assistance once every 12 months at uwsn.org/projectreach.

United We Prepare: Disaster Preparedness and Community Resiliency

With support from Verizon, United Way of Southern Nevada (UWSN) launched United We Prepare, a local initiative empowering Southern Nevadans to be ready for natural and man-made disasters. The program includes free disaster preparedness workshops, resources, and information from program partners to help residents safeguard their homes, families, and neighborhoods. Building on UWSN's crisis response, which provided emergency housing, food, and utility support to 61,000+ residents, United We Prepare equips the community with tools and knowledge to stay safe and resilient.
